Local Interest Collection

What is it? The Local Interest Collection is a collection of books, periodicals, and other materials that are of particular interest to the Okanagan region, such as materials about the region’s history, materials written by Okanagan College faculty, and materials both about and published by Okanagan College.

Where is it? In the Kelowna Campus Library.

How can I find out what is in the collection? In the library catalogue’s advanced search, choose the location “Local Interest Collection” to show only results from this collection.

Why should I visit? To do research for a history assignment, to use the microform reader to read old newspapers, or to do personal historic research.

When can I visit? The Local Interest Collection is open during Kelowna library hours:

Monday-Thursday: 7:45 a.m.-10 p.m.
Friday: 7:45 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Saturday-Sunday: 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Check the website for summer, holiday, and non-Kelowna hours.

Who can use the collection? Okanagan College students, employees, alumni, and members of the public.
