Attaching a reading list to a node is necessary for browsing lists, easily adding lists to Moodle, and for findability when searching within the Talis Aspire system. New nodes should only be created for courses or sections. Use a uniform format when creating labels and titles for new course nodes and sections (HIST-112-001). Section nodes are created only if more than one reading list is needed for the same course.